

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 8th:

Abbi Henke

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of this community because everyone knows everyone and they look after each other."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

"Being a good role model is important because having someone look up to you is an amazing feeling. Knowing that you can/will make a difference in someone is really rewarding."

Topic Thunder:

"It's important to stay away from drugs and alcohol when you're a student because it jeopardizes your academic and athletic career. You should focus on school and athletics without that negative distraction."

Scouting Report:

"Abbi has a great sense of humor, and she is a fun person to be around!" – Mrs. Zawacki

"Abbi is a very hardworking and dedicated student-athlete. Her sense of humor makes her fun to have in class!" – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

"Abbi is a great student in the classroom. She puts a lot of time into extra things and is friends with everyone. She works hard in the off season."

"Abbi is always willing to help anyone."

"Last year she helped me A LOT with my geometry homework and she helped me succeed."

"Abbi is always kind and able to be independent. She has a very positive and bright personality."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Mr. Hall. He showed me that there is more to life than just giving up when something gets hard. He helps me not only in the classroom, but also outside."
