

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of December 7th:

Abby Mulcahy

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the OF community because the people and businesses are always supportive of the students. The people in the community are always willing to help the school out and the community is strong and always comes together when there is a time of need."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA and Student Council

Outside of School: ASP, Christian Youth Alliance, and Ruby's Pantry

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because you want to make a good impression for the younger people. My hope is for them to look up to me and want to take similar steps in the future to make a positive difference in our community."

Topic Thunder:

"I think it is important to stay away from drugs, alcohol, and tobacco as an athlete and club member because they all can affect your life in a negative way. They can mess with the way you act, think, or perform. In addition, they can affect your health and can affect you mentally and physically."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Abby is a quite young lady that has a great personality. She is confident in her abilities. I love helping her get over her fear of snakes." – Mr. Fischer

"Abby is a great student to have in class and she works hard and is a role model for those around her. Abby will do great things in her future!" – Mrs. Steinke

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Abby is extremely kind and considerate. She is always being considerate toward and helping those around her."

"Abby is so good at having fun and just enjoying the moment, she always seems so happy, and she has a good heart."

"Abby is always down to do anything, and willing to help with everything."

"Abby is the type of person that makes sure that people feel included. She is one of those people that you benefit from being with."

"Abby is always supportive."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is my grandpa, Andy Gunderson. I chose him because he is a big role model to me. He supports the youth in the Osseo Fairchild communities and has always encouraged me academically. He genuinely cares about our community and always inspires others."
