

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of November 27th:

Abby Mulcahy

Hometown Pride: "I am proud to be part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because there are lots of people in this community that work to help out us kids."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Volleyball and Basketball

Clubs: Above and Beyond and FBLA

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because then younger people will look up to you. If you are being a good role model, then they will want to do the same."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs and alcohol so that your mind and body can stay healthy. You will make better choices if you are not using."

Scouting Report:

"Abby is an extremely nice person and a super person to have as a student. Abby cares about her learning, does what she needs to do to ensure that, but most of all, is great because she is the only one who at least 'acts' like she appreciates my humor." – Mr. Tourdot

"Abby is a very hard working student and strives to do her best. I always know that Abby will have a smile on her face and do her best at any task that I send her way. I look forward to watching Abby grow throughout her high school career and welcome her into FBLA this year!" – Mrs. Steinke

"Abby is a great student to have in class. She is always attentive, prepared and conscientious in her work." – Ms. Dickens

"Abby is very considerate of those around her." – Mr. Velie

Fan Deck:

"Abby is super nice to everyone."

"Abby is always dedicated to her team."

"Abby has good leadership skills and is smart."

"Abby is very positive and a kind person."

"Abby is positive and reliable."

"Abby is friendly."

Hometown Hero:

"Carol Dodge is my hometown hero because she helped me learn more about myself, life and the meaning of how to give to others."
