

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of November 26th:

Amara Wilkinson

Hometown Pride:

"I am very proud to be part of this community because everyone tries to lift one another up. It is very gratifying to see how everyone can get along."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: None

Clubs: Above and Beyond, TADD, FBLA, FFA,
Musical, High Quiz Bowl, Forensics

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because the younger generation will follow lead. If someone's child saw them doing drugs they might become involved in that in the future."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because they will impact the way you live your life. If you were an athlete when you started to do drugs, it will affect the way you breath and make it harder to be physically active."

Scouting Report:

"Amara impressed me this year at open house because she came to my classroom and introduced herself! Great initiative, Amara! In class, she has done a wonderful job on her assignments and I am excited, too, that Amara has joined the high school forensics team." – Mrs. Mosley

"Amara is involved, respectful, and a great student." – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck:

"Amara always has something nice to say."

"Amara is super kind and very caring. She gets good grades and is always willing to help others."

"Amara gets good grades and thinks of others before herself."

"Amara is always respectful to others and works hard to do the best that she can."

"Amara makes friends with everyone and makes others smile."

"Amara is smart and a good worker."

Hometown Hero:

"My dad is my hometown hero is my mom. She always has been there for us kids when something needed to be done. She has supported my dad when he decided to start his own business, all while driving my brother and I to and from school activities. She also has to deal with kids at her job and them come home to deal with us."
