

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 2nd:

Andrew Christopherson

Hometown Pride: "I am proud to be part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because of the support this community brings to school events like sporting events and concerts."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond and Middle School Mentor

Thunder Role:

"Students should stay away from drugs and alcohol not only for their own health benefits, but also to set an example for others, so that others don't get involved in drugs and alcohol."

Topic Thunder:

"It is especially important for a student athlete/club member to be a good role model because the younger kids will have the most opportunities to observe behavior and actions of student athlete / club members."

Scouting Report:

"Andrew is kind and thoughtful. He often helps other students without expecting anything in return. He is attentive in class, works hard, and turns in quality work." – Ms. Dickensen

"Andrew is a hard working student who strives to do his best in everything that he does and has a sense of humor to lighten the day. I always know who the 'Lions' are going to play by his silly comments! Thanks, Andrew, for keeping me up to date on My Team!!" – Mrs. Steinke

"Andrew has always been a great kid that is mature and conscientious when it comes to his schoolwork. I especially enjoy being able to talk with Andrew about our passion for baseball." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

"Andrew is a positive person."

"Andrew is athletic, nice to everyone and gets good grades."

"Andrew is polite to teachers and nice to others."

"Andrew is kindhearted, good at sports, and also smart."

"Andrew works hard in everything that he does."

"Andrew works hard in baseball and is just a really good kid."

"Andrew is smart and funny."

"Andrew is one of the nicest kids in our school."

"Andrew is an all-around good guy."

Hometown Hero:

"My Hometown Heroes are my parents. They are my biggest fans. They are always there to support me and I wouldn't be where I am today without them."
