

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of January 15th:

Ashley Skoyen

Hometown Pride: "Osseo-Fairchild will always help you out in a time of need. The people are so accepting of one another. We stick up for one another no matter what."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Volleyball and Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, NHS, Jazz Band, Band

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because kids look up to us. They see how we act and that influences how they will act in the future. If we're good role models then they will make good choices as well."

Topic Thunder:

"Drugs and alcohol ruin your reputation, friendships, and athletic performance. You have to choose what's more important to you in life, and your team and friends are counting on you to be smart."

Scouting Report:

"Ashley is the epitome of determination, drive, leadership, and success in the geometry classroom. She perseveres to achieve the standard even when the bar is set high." – Mr. Bergeron

"Ashley is one of those students that you always look forward to having in class each day! No matter the day, she is always trying her hardest and pushing the people around her to do the same. Ashley is someone who always comes to class with a smile. Keep up the great work!" – Mr. Drayton

"Ashley always seems to come to class with a friendly smile. She is a great kid with an awesome personality!" – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

"Ashley is a positive role model."

"Ashley helps everyone and is kind."

"Ashley always has nice things to say."

"Ashley always says hi to me in the hallway and congratulates you...even if you didn't do great."

"Ashley works hard and shows respect. She stays away from drugs and alcohol."

"Ashley is a good role model and a great example of what a student athlete should be."

"Ashley works hard and is smart."

"Ashley is very considerate of others."

Hometown Hero:

"Eric Skoyen (My Dad) is my hometown hero. My dad pushes me to be a better athlete, and a better person. I wouldn't be where I am today if it wasn't for him. Whether I'm having a rough game or the best match I've played, he's always going to support me. He's the most hard working man I've ever met, and is so passionate about the things he loves. I'll never thank him enough for all he does for me."
