

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 3rd:

Ayva Oliver

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of this community because I like how it is kinda small so everyone kinda knows everyone. I also like how since we are kinda small during sporting events even if your child or family member is not playing in a sport community members still come and watch you and support you."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Volleyball

Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

"I think younger kids are always look up to you and you should want to set good examples for them because one day they might want to be like you."

Topic Thunder:

"If you are in sports and you get caught with drugs or alcohol that can get you coded and then you will be benched for a couple of games and you could also get scholarships taken away."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Ayva loves music and lip-syncing with the music playing through the overhead speakers in my room. I love to watch her perform; she has a great personality and a beautiful smile."— Mrs. Beasley

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Ayva has a super bubbly personality and always knows how to cheer someone up."

"Ayva always brightens the room and has the ability to make everyone comfortable and welcomed."

"Ayva does her work and asks for no reward for her work. I think it would be nice for her to come recognition."

Hometown Hero:

"Lexi is my volleyball coach and I chose her because she is probably one the most genuine person I have ever met. Her being the new volleyball coach has been amazing. She is very kind and a very down to earth person. So far she has made my senior season so fun and enjoyable and I am happy I get to end my final season doing what I love with an amazing coach. I hope she continues to be the varsity volleyball coach in the future so she can give everyone the hope and confidence everybody needs."
