

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of December 6th:

Brady Dehnke

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the OF community because this community is very supportive. The OF community supports everyone, academically and athletically. The community comes together to help those in need, and that is why I am proud to be part of the OF community."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FFA, Science Olympiad, NHS, and Quiz Bowl
Outside of School: Multiple examples of volunteering in the community

Thunder Role:

"I think it is important to be a good role model because other high school students unknowingly look up to other high school students as role models and the students that they are looking up to need to be good role models to encourage them to make good choices. The more good role models there are, the more people will look up to them, and the more people that will follow in their footsteps and be role models for others."

Topic Thunder:

"I think it is important to stay away from drugs, alcohol, and tobacco especially as a member of Above and Beyond because members of Above and Beyond are meant to be good role models for other students. If people think that the members are making bad decisions such as drinking alcohol and doing drugs, they will think that it is good or acceptable behavior because their own role models are making the bad decision."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Brady Dehnke has consistently been one of the hardest workers and most conscientious students that I have had. I also appreciate the confidence he shows with his consistent participation in class activities and discussions. He is a great student!" – Mr. Stoik

"Brady is consistently reliable and serves as an academic role model for his peers. He isn't afraid to speak up during class discussions and often has wise words to share on a wide variety of topics. Brady also takes the initiative to go above and beyond in everything he does -- he is conscientious in his writing and pays attention to detail in all of his endeavors." – Mrs. Beasley

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Brady Dehnke has stellar academics, and is a kind person. He gives good advice, is responsible and hardworking. He is a good role model and sets a good example. "

"Brady because he is super nice and kind to everyone and always helps people."

"Brady is smart and has always tried his hardest academically."

"Brady is super smart and super nice."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Mrs. Hanson. Mrs. Hanson is my hometown hero because she is an amazing teacher and is also very helpful and kind. Mrs. Hanson always makes time for all students who need help with schoolwork, even if it is not for one of the classes that she teaches. She works her hardest to help all students do well and thrive in school. She is always there for her students. For example, when something stressful or tough is going on in a student's life, she tries to cheer them up and lets them know that they can talk to her if they need to. Mrs. Hanson is also pretty funny, and I often chuckle at her jokes during class or randomly remember one of her jokes out of the blue. Mrs. Hanson once said, e is pi's less famous cousin, and I'm pretty sure our whole Calculus class chuckled at that one."
