

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of December 10th:

Bret Kostka

Hometown Pride:

"The Osseo-Fairchild community has a very strong bond from one to another. I think it is great to see so many people together at different events in the community."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Football, Wrestling and Track

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FFA, NHS, TADD

Thunder Role:

"Being a good role model sets a standard for students below you to follow. There is always someone looking up to you for an example. I hope to be that good example for students to strive for excellence."

Topic Thunder:

"Alcohol and drugs have a direct effect on your body's mental and physical composition. Losing focus in school or life can lead you down a path of poor grades and bad decisions. I feel it is important to take all necessary steps to succeed in life; drugs and alcohol are definitely not going to help you."

Scouting Report:

"Bret continues to be an excellent role model demonstrating a tremendous amount of maturity and strong work ethic. He consistently does well in both the classroom and in sports competition due to his dedication." – Mr. Stoik

"Bret is a strong student and role model. He is a leader in and out of the classroom. I have been impressed at his desire to strive for perfection in math class." – Mr. Bergeron

Fan Deck:

"Bret is athletic, a role model, and sweet."

"Bret works hard in class and is a positive role model."

"Bret is kind on and off of the field."

"Bret is nice, accepting and loving towards everyone."

"Bret gives 110% in everything he is a part of."

"Bret is always polite, respectful and clean."

"Bret works hard in sports and in the classroom."

"Bret is smart, athletic, and caring."

"A lot of people look up to Bret and he always gives 100%"

"Bret has a very strong work ethic. He is willing to help anyone, and he will get the job done."

Hometown Hero:

"Dave Ferrier is my hometown hero. He strives to help others achieve their goals in life. I see him as being a great role model to me and other student athletes in the surrounding areas. We appreciate what he does for us."
