

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of March 15th:

Brice Shimon

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud of this community because it is such a giving and supportive town and everyone helps one another. I absolutely love all the support the community gives on game days and especially all the home games. We always get a great turnout and it is just such an amazing feeling."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Football, Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FFA Officer

Outside of School: Ruby's Pantry, OELC

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because you never know who is watching."

Topic Thunder:

"If you do drugs or drink alcohol you could get addicted and it stops you from playing to your full potential."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Brice is a great person to have in the classroom, athletic venue, and the area of the FFA. He has great respect for his peers and adults alike. He will be doing great things." – Mr. Boettcher

"While it has been a while since I have had Brice in class I know that whenever I do see him he will have a friendly smile on his face." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Brice is nice to and is friends with everyone."

"Brice is the type of person that can get along with everybody. He always finds a way to include everyone and he does it with a positive attitude."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Andy Gunderson because he is one of my main supporters and he has been coming to my games from when I started playing sports all the way through my senior year. I always learn something new from Andy, even things to fix my game! I really want to thank Andy for everything and all the support!"
