

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of February 27th:

Brody Seefeldt

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the OF community because of how much support there is. Every sporting event many people from the community come out and watch even if it is an away game. The OF community also has many events they put on throughout the year that bring the community very close. That is why I am proud to be a part of the OF community."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, National Honors Society

Outside of School: Lions Club Thanksgiving Dinner

Thunder Role:

"Many kids look up to the high schoolers. Showing the younger kids how to act is very important for our future."

Topic Thunder:

"Drugs and alcohol will mess with your brain. This will make your brain slower which will affect you in sports and school."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Brody is a pleasure to work with in class. Although he is quiet during class discussion, when he does speak up, it's thoughtful and thought-provoking. I commend him for going out of his comfort zone and taking the UW-Oshkosh College Writing 101 class second trimester. It can be intimidating, but Brody handled it like a pro!" – Mrs. Beasley

"Brody has been a consistent lead by example guy both in the classroom and on the court. It has been a pleasure to work with him and watch him grow over the years." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Brody always strives for excellence, both in the classroom and on the field."

"Brody is involved and is the best guy to represent the grade. He is also kind."

"He is very involved and does really good in school."

"Brody is nice and a good student athlete!"

"Brody works so hard to be a good role model."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Matt Korger. I picked Mr. Korger because of how much he helps kids in sports and inside the classroom. He always makes sure we are at our best, in the classroom and on the field. If you ever need help on homework he would help and if you ever want to get some practice in he would be to the field in no time. He also is a big advocate on keeping a strong mental mindset helps many kids and creates a better team on the baseball field. That is why I picked Mr. Korger as my hometown hero."
