

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 8th:

Brogan Korger

Hometown Pride:

“The community is so closely knit, everyone leans on each other, and are happy to support their neighbors as well. That is something that is hard to find.”

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA, NHS

Outside of School: Ruby's Pantry, Sons of the American Legion

Thunder Role:

“It is important that younger kids see that it is okay to be kind and do well in school.”

Topic Thunder:

“By doing drugs, I would be letting down myself, my team, and my family. Plus, they are bad for your health.”

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

“Brogan took a chance this year to take the UW-Oshkosh College Writing course to help improve his writing. Brogan did exactly that and I couldn't be more proud. Taking chances is something leaders do.” – Mrs. Schultz

“I was recently in a meeting where a parent said how pumped his elementary aged son was when Brogan acknowledged him at a sporting event. I think this is a good description of Brogan. He understands that the world is bigger than himself and he can impact others over and over again in his life. He is intelligent, selfless and easy to talk to. I will miss his presence at the high school and the community will miss all he has given back to it, but I know Brogan will take these values and skills with him wherever he goes.” – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

“Brogan Korger is an excellent student.”

“He's so smart. Balancing sports and academics is not an easy job but he never failed to get things done on time and be there for his sports teams. He also has a job, a girlfriend, and a very caring family that's always staying involved. I think if there's anyone who can balance their time, it's Brogan.”

“He is always trying to help people out to the best of his ability and is always respectful to his classmates.”

“Brogan has helped me in multiple occasions with school work.”

Hometown Hero:

“Rick Speckien is my Hometown Hero. Mr. Speckien is an awesome teacher and makes every class fun. He is always good for a joke or conversation about sports. I enjoy all the classes I have with him, and I want him to be recognized for his hard work.”
