

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 22nd:

Brooke McCune

Hometown Pride:

"I'm proud to be part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because of the good people and the good things that happen in the community."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Volleyball, Basketball and Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

"It is important for people to be a good role model because people are always watching you. Even if you don't notice if they are watching, you want kids to see you do positive things and not bad."

Topic Thunder:

"I think it is bad for students to do drugs and alcohol because it affects your grade and your life in a bad way."

Scouting Report:

"Brooke is a joy to have in class. She is enthusiastic about learning and always upbeat. Brooke is a great role model for other students to follow." – Mrs. Ottestad

"I am so happy that Brooke's peers chose to recognize her. Brooke is starting to emerge as a positive leader both on and off the court / field." – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck:

"Brooke is active and works hard."

"Brooke has always been a very uplifting person."

"Brooke is very smart and very respectful."

"Brooke is super caring and is nice to others even those who aren't always nice to her."

"Brooke is a very respectful person and works hard at sports."

"Brooke always makes sure people are doing the right thing."

"Brooke is a great student athlete and a really great person in general. She is one of the best people in the Above and Beyond."

"Brooke knows what to do in bad situations."

"Brooke gives people advice and always is super kind. She never gives up on anything."

"Brooke knows what is right and does the right thing."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown is Alaina Madison because she handles problems so well and has fun with the people around her no matter who is with her and always tries to be positive."
