

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of February 5th:

Brooks Koxlien

Hometown Pride:

“Osseo Fairchild is a good community to be a part of because they are supportive. When something bad happens to the community everyone helps to rebuild it. People in our community are friendly, and at sporting events they come and cheer on the Thunder.”

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Football, Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond

Outside of School: Mowing at Church

Thunder Role:

“I think it is important to be a good role model because being a team and a local leader is important so you can gain trust.”

Topic Thunder:

“I think it is important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because your brain is not fully developed until you're out of high school and your decision making is the last to develop and you don't want to damage that.”

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

“Brooks is a great leader. He is willing to take others under his wing if needed. I have seen Brooks cheer his peers up and still be serious when they need a support. Brooks is a great role model for others.” – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

“Brooks Koxlien is funny and helps me out with sport.”

“Brooks Koxlien lightens the mood in the classroom.”

“Brooks is a good person.”

“Brooks Koxlien because he's helpful and supportive.”

“Brooks Koxlien is always making a joke and he also know when it's appropriate.”

“Brooks is a 3 sport athlete, doesn't drink or do drugs, helps people out, honor role, and is kind.”

“Brooks is a good role model and he is very honest.”

“Brooks tries hard to help others and does good in school.”

“Brooks is in many sports and knows what's right and what isn't.”

Hometown Hero:

“Andy Paulus is my hometown hero. Andy is like my second dad because he always asks me if I am ok or if I need a ride. Andy is a good community member by helping ANYONE who needs. Mowing, picking up trash are just a couple things he does for the community. This is why I picked Andy.”
