

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of December 18th:

Bryssa Johnson

Hometown Pride:

"I'm proud to be a part of the OF community because since we are a small town we are like a family. When a tragic accident happens we come together and support each other. I'm proud to be apart the OF community because we slay."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Basketball, Volleyball and Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, FBLA, TADD, and NHS

Outside of School: Church Youth Group

Thunder Role:

"I think it is important to be a good role model because you never know who is watching. You always want to be the best version of yourself. Everything you do gives you a reputation but you get to decide what that is."

Topic Thunder:

"I think it is important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because doing those things can ruin your life and especially at such a young age. Doing drugs and drinking alcohol limits your ability's and is all in all not good."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"I love Bryssa! She is the kindest, caring and most responsible teenager I have ever met! She babysits for us on occasion and I always know I can count on her to love and care for my girls. Bryssa is so easygoing and has the biggest heart!– Mrs. Mach

"Bryssa Johnson is a ball of personality who strives for success, no matter what! Keep it up, Bryssa!" – Mrs. Lane Neddermeyer

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Bryssa is a very caring person."

"Bryssa Johnson because she is very sympathetic and comforting when people are sad."

"Bryssa is active in sports and many clubs. She cares for many people in the community and makes everyone smile and laugh. She brings joy to the community."

"Bryssa knows how to fill a room with laughter and conversation! She is always willing to help those around her, and is very involved and passionate about everything she does! She is very friendly, and can make anyone have a laugh! :)"

"Bryssa is a kind and genuine person. Her contagious laugh and smile can make anyone's day. Everyone can say Bryssa's personality and generosity is one of the best parts about her."

"Bryssa is a great student who goes to long way to do her best and help others"

Hometown Hero:

"Maryjane Holmen is my hometown hero because not only is she a first grade teacher but also a working mother. She works hard not just during the school year but also in the summer for summer school. Maryjane is very involved with events at the school and she's an amazing role model."
