

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 29th:

Caden Boettcher

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of our community because our community is so close and you know most everyone here."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Football, Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, NHS

Thunder Role:

"I feel that it is important for students to stay away from drugs and alcohol because there are no good outcomes from using them."

Topic Thunder:

"I feel that it is important for students to stay away from drugs and alcohol because there are much better things you could be doing for your body and for the others around you. It is important to make good choices so that the bad ones don't affect your life negatively."

Scouting Report:

"Caden is an excellent example and role model for how a student-athlete should be with his dedication to school work and his efforts both in and out of the sport seasons." – Mr. Stoik

"Caden is a hardworking student-athlete. He makes the efforts to do his best in the classroom and on the sports venue. He is a great supporter of his teammates, always encouraging them to do their best. His effort and desire to be successful are wonderful characteristics to have." – Mr. Boettcher

Fan Deck:

"Caden is always kind to everyone. He takes all kids under his wing. He is willing to do anything for anyone and is so kind to everyone. He pushes others to be as great as him."

"Caden is respectful, friendly and extremely hard working in everything he does."

"Caden is a hard worker, dedicated athlete, and cares about academics."

"Caden is a hard worker, great athlete and works for his achievements."

"Caden is a three sport athlete, very honest, supportive and idolized."

"Caden is very involved in the school and community."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown is Donnie Kuehn. I chose him because he always is volunteering his time for kids. He gives up his time to help all athletes get better."