

Name _____

Cat Digestive System Video WS

Go to my website Anatomy and Physiology Chapter 15 "Digestive System Cat Dissection" or (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KedVktY6JLE>) and watch the cat digestive system dissection. Fill in the below video guide along with the video.

1. The digestive system starts in the _____ cavity.
2. The tube with the cartilaginous rings is not part of the digestive system. It is called the _____.
3. Behind the tube with cartilaginous rings we can find the _____.
4. In order to get to the stomach, the esophagus needs to pierce through the _____.
5. The _____ of the stomach is found just on the under surface of the diaphragm.
6. The _____ region of the stomach is where the esophagus empties into the stomach.
7. The bulk of the stomach is referred to as the _____ of the stomach.
8. The part of the stomach leading up to the pyloric sphincter is referred to as the _____.
9. The connective tissue that is connected to the greater curvature of the stomach is called _____.
10. The _____ ligament is found between the liver and the diaphragm.
11. The _____ connects the small intestine loops.
12. The small intestine comes in three parts. The first part is called the _____.
It is near the pancreas.
13. The second part of the small intestine is the _____.

14. The third part of the small intestine is the _____.
15. Another name for the large intestine is _____.
16. The 'blind end' of the large intestine is a pouch called the _____.
17. After the cecum comes the _____ colon.
18. The across part of the colon is the _____.
19. After the descending colon is the _____ colon.
20. The little sac in the liver embedded in the liver is called the
_____.
21. The common bile duct leads to the _____.