

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of November 2nd:

Chelsey Severson

Hometown Pride:

"The Osseo-Fairchild community is a great one, full of many members dedicated towards bettering the lives of its students. It is a safe, supportive community that I am blessed to have grown up in and been a part of."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, NHS, TADD, FBLA

Outside of School: Christian Youth Alliance / Mission Trips

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because younger community members are always looking up to high school students. They see them and strive to be like them, so students need to have good behaviors for younger students to follow."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs, alcohol, and tobacco as an athlete and club member because they all negatively affect your life. Doing any of those things is both affecting your body and future while also stopping you from being a positive role model for younger students."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Chelsey is a top-notch student who is reliable and trustworthy. If she tells you she will do something, you can count on her to do it. Her smile and her kindness are contagious." – Mrs. Beasley

"Chelsey Severson has a plan to succeed. She comes to class with the mindset that she will learn all that the course will offer. She puts forth the effort to learn the information and be able to apply it. I also admire her support of her classmates as she has been a fan at the sporting events this fall." – Mrs. Ottestad
