

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 15th:

Chelsey Severson

Hometown Pride:

"I am blessed to be part of such a wonderful community. Everybody is so kind and are always willing to help anyone in need. I am very thankful to be a part of Above and Beyond because I am able to give back to the Osseo-Fairchild community."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Basketball and Softball      Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, FBLA and TADD

Thunder Role:

"Younger students look up to older club and athlete members. They view them as role models, and strive to be like them when they are older. In order to influence their lives in a positive way, older students need to be good role models."

Topic Thunder:

"I feel that it is important for students to stay away from drugs and alcohol because there are much better things you could be doing for your body and for the others around you. It is important to make good choices so that the bad ones don't affect your life negatively."

Scouting Report:

"Chelsey is very conscientious and shows excellent effort and care with her assignments. She is always there to lend a helping hand to others when they have questions. I look forward to watching Chelsey grow throughout high school and FBLA. Thanks for all of your hard work Chelsey!" – Mrs. Steinke

"Chelsey is a sweet girl who works hard and always shows up!" – Mrs. Zawacki

Fan Deck:

"Chelsey is caring, funny and always responsible."

"Chelsey is always willing to help; especially with homework."

"Chelsey also funs to be around and is a great student."

"Chelsey is a great role model, works hard, and is respectful."

"Chelsey is always very nice."

"Chelsey is respectful and a hard worker."

"Chelsey is a hard worker."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Sharon Steinke because she is very relatable with students and is always willing to help anyone in need. She is very easy to talk with and always goes the extra mile for all of her students."
