

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 22nd:

Cierra Hansen

Hometown Pride:

"Living in a small community is nice because everyone knows each other and can interact with each other."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA, TADD

Thunder Role:

"Everyone looks up to you in some sort of way. Even when you think that nobody is watching; someone is. Being a good role model helps teach others that drugs and alcohol is not 'cool' and being a good role model is."

Topic Thunder:

"Drugs and alcohol just ruin you. They tear you away from your family, friends, school etc. There is nothing 'cool' about them and they sure don't make you cool"

Scouting Report:

"Cierra continues to be a very conscientious and hardworking student." – Mr. Stoik

"Cierra is a great advocate for herself and a really awesome student to be around." – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck:

"Cierra makes good choices."

"Cierra works really hard."

Hometown Hero:

"I chose Frans Carlstrom as my hometown hero. After meeting Frans on ASP he has forever changed my life. I've never really been able to talk to anyone in the way I can talk to Frans. We had a great bond when we first met and it still hasn't changed. I'm so thankful that Frans was able to help me through life's obstacles."
