

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of February 25th:

Cole Windhorst

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of our community because it is a small community where everyone knows each other, the people are always friendly, and everyone gets along well."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Football, Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA

Thunder Role:

"I feel that it is important for student athlete / club members to be good role models because they never know who they are inspiring and following in their footsteps."

Topic Thunder:

"I feel that it is important for students to stay away from drugs and alcohol because just trying them can ruin your future and destroy your health."

Scouting Report:

"Cole is one of the most polite and well-mannered students we have in our school. At the same time, he is also very conscientious about his schoolwork. He is always putting in the extra time to make sure that he has success and that he understands the material." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

"Cole is always a nice person to kids of all ages and is a very good worker."

"Cole is kind-hearted and caring towards everyone."

"Cole is very friendly and kind to everyone."

"Cole is kind and hardworking. He doesn't give up easily."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Mrs. Hanson because she is always willing to help me and other students with their work and always puts in the time to help whether it is during school or after."
