

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of May 8th:

Corryn Konkel

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the OF community because we are all so close and strive to do what is best for the whole community. We all come together to work hard and meet our goals."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Track

Clubs: Above and Beyond, NHS and Student Council

Thunder Role:

"I think it's important to be a good role model because people often copy what they see others saying or doing...it's important to set a good example and be kind so other will do the same."

Topic Thunder:

"I think it's important to stay away from these substances because they can be very harmful to your body and mind. They can also cause you to do things you may regret."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Corryn is driven and intelligent. She will do great things in her future. – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Corryn is smart and works hard.

"Corryn is a nice person and very friendly and has a great personality."

Hometown Hero:

"Mr. Phillips is my hometown hero. He always pushed me to work my hardest in high jump. I can tell how much he actually cares and wants me to improve. He also makes sure to deeply explain topics in physics if I am confused till I fully understand."
