

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of February 25th:

Cory Myhers

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of our community because the people are all nice and are willing to help other people in need."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Football, Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA

Thunder Role:

"I feel that it is important for student athlete / club members to be good role models because younger generations look up to you and you represent your school and yourself while doing so."

Topic Thunder:

"I feel that it is important for students to stay away from drugs and alcohol because they can negatively affect your life and the lives of those around you."

Scouting Report:

"Cory is a student that every school would love to have. He is hard working, well liked and a great role model. He is willing to do anything that is asked of him by his peers and the adults around him. It was an honor having him as a student and player." – Mr. Boettcher

"Cory is an excellent example of someone that just goes about his business, both in the classroom and on the court without making waves or causing disruptions." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

"Cory is always smiling and shows respect toward everyone. He always includes everyone."

"Cory is funny."

"Cory is a three-sport athlete that still has the time to get good grades, work and be enjoyable."

"Cory is a good person who doesn't cause problems."

Hometown Hero:

"Eric Boettcher is my hometown hero because he does so much for this school and the community and a lot of times it goes unnoticed."
