

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of March 11th:

Dawsyn Lyngen

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because it is a small town where everyone knows each other so they are willing to help each other out."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Football and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FFA

Thunder Role:

"It is important as an athlete and club member to be a good role model because we are the people that younger students look up to."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important for me to stay away from drugs and alcohol so that I can be the best that I can be and be a good role model for younger kids."

Scouting Report:

"Dawsyn is that person who will always lighten up the room. He is a great student, friend and role model for our school. He is a person that everyone likes having around and Dawsyn will always do anything for anyone." – Mr. Boettcher

"I love that Dawsyn is so comfortable with who he is as a person. He is a great kid that is a lot of fun to have in class." – Mr. Stoik

"Dawsyn is a hard working student who is always willing to learn and grow from his mistakes. He adds to the discourse of the classroom." – Mr. Bergeron

Fan Deck:

"Dawsyn is always someone you can go and talk to."

"Dawsyn is outgoing and respectful to everyone."

"Dawsyn is funny and supportive."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Keith Nelson. He volunteers at my church for Sunday school, and is always interested in what kids are up to in school."