

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 24th:

Eleice Dahl

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the OF community because of the support given by its members. The people and business owners in the community always support our high school programs."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, Hope Squad, National Honor Society, FBLA, Culture Club

Sports: Golf, Basketball and Softball

Outside of School: Girl Scouts

Thunder Role:

"I think it is important to be a good role model because we then encourage younger kids to be like us."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs, alcohol and tobacco as an athlete because it can damage your ability to perform. As a club member and athlete it is important because it can ruin your reputation."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Eleice is a very strong-willed individual - I appreciate her competitiveness and determination." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Eleice is a very nice person and I think it's great how she does so well in school and her sports that takes a lot of hard work."

"Eleice is outgoing, involved, and very supportive of other people. She is a great leader and she works very hard."

"Eleice is involved in many sports and clubs and is also an okay friend and decently nice."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown here is Scott (Futz) Vold. Futz is my hometown hero because he not only supports his players in season, but in everything they do. He also takes a lot of time out of work and being at home to coach us. I really appreciate everything he has done for me throughout high school."
