

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 4th:

Ella Quirk

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the OF community because it is nice to see everyone involved. Many people in our community support our school."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Track

Clubs: Above and Beyond, National Honor Society, Teens Against Destructive Decisions

Outside of School: Sunday School Teacher

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because younger students need responsible people to look up to. Being a positive role model helps motivate others to do good."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because doing so is bad for your physical and mental health. It also can ruin your reputation as a student and athlete."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Ella Quirk is quiet but mighty! She is one of the most creative students I've met, and I've never witnessed her say an unkind word about anyone. What a fantastic leader and role model!" – Mrs. Beasley

"While she has always been a quiet leader, I really appreciate seeing Ella taking on more visible leadership roles throughout the school." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Ella is super nice to everyone and always has a smile on her face."

"Ella Quirk supports and cares for others."

"Ella is a good role model in our class because she will try her best to work hard on classes and be the nicest she can be to others."

"I believe that Ella is a great role model because she is the kindest person I know and is always willing and happy to help people when they are struggling or need help."

"Ella Quirk is a good role model."

"Ella Quirk is always smiling and is so genuine to everyone."

"Ella Q is always kind to everyone."

"Ella Quirk, even though she can be quiet at times she always strives to do her best and help others when she can."

"Ella is super sweet and a great role model to others."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is my dad (Michael Quirk) because I have always been inspired by him. I have looked up to him all my life. He has done so much for me and I am happy to call him my dad."
