

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 1st:

Ella Rahl

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the OF community, as it is a great group of people that care for each other and would come together to help others when needed."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Archery

Thunder Role:

"I think it is important to be a good role model for people around you because your actions may influence what they do."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs and other harmful substances as a club member because it can affect you mentally and physically. Your behavior may also change and reflect negatively on your peers."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Ella is a wonderful person and student. She may be soft spoken but has such wisdom beyond her age and when she does share her thoughts they are valued by others. Ella is friendly and kind and willing to listen to many different viewpoints. I have very much enjoyed Ella as a student and am lifted up when I am greeted by her in the hallways. You will not regret taking the time to get to know Ella" – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Ella Rahl is a good team player and tries her best."

"Ella is smart and nice."

"Ella Rahl always being helpful."

"Ella is so nice to me. "

"Ella is quiet and helps people out in some classes."

"Ella Rahl is always being kind to others even if she doesn't know them."

"Ella is very considerate and trustworthy."

"Ella does good things for our community."

"Ella will lift your mood up and help you out."

"Ella helps me out with work."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Mrs. Tera Simpson because she takes time out of her day to organize community activities and events which brings people together. She is also a very kind and caring person who I'm sure is a lot of other peoples' hero as well. I couldn't think of anyone better for the community and for a hero."
