

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of March 4th:

Emma Lyngen

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the O-F community because there is so much support and good attitude with everyone in the community."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Basketball, Volleyball and Softball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council

Thunder Role:

"This school gives so much to us and it's time to give some back I know."

Topic Thunder:

"We should stay away from drugs and alcohol because our brains are not fully developed and that cause problems down the road."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Emma is a truly caring person, fostering a desire for lifelong learning, a leader in and out of the classroom, and overall inspiration to those around them. It is astonishing what Emma has been able to learn from me just by taking my classes! However, besides those traits Emma brings a curiosity and humor to class that makes her a joy to work with. She is engaged, and not afraid to make learning fun. I am very excited to see what her future holds, as I know she will do great things throughout her high school career - and beyond. Keep up the great work!" -Mr. Halvorson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Emma is thoughtful and active in the community."

"Emma is generous and thoughtful."

"Emma is a great student."

"Emma is very active and she is an absolutely amazing friend. She's there whenever someone needs and she doesn't let anyone push her friends around."

"Emma loves to make everyone laugh and she always notices the little things in people."

"Emma is the type of person who makes everyone laugh."

"Emma Lyngen always brings up someone's mood."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is my father David Lyngen. My dad works for the Trempealeau County Sheriff's Department, but he's also a part of the Trempealeau County Fair Board. My dad has always taught me to work for the things I want, and to never give up on things I'm passionate about. He serves his community by being active in local organizations. He knows how to use his sense of humor to help in different situations. I look up to him because he is an excellent role model for people of any age."
