

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of May 20th:

Gabe Schnell

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because it means that no matter what, there will always be someone there to help you out."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: None

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Spanish Club

Thunder Role:

"Good role models are important so that there is a standard set for younger generations to what a responsible person looks like."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important for students to stay away from drugs and alcohol because, aside from the obvious reasons of addiction and harm to health, they take away from your chance to learn and better yourself."

Scouting Report:

"Gabe is a very bright and likeable student who goes about his business in school with very little assistance needed." – Mr. Stoik

"Gabriel is a quiet gentleman that I have had the privilege of having for three years. He will do his work quietly and is always willing to help others. Good luck in the future Gabriel!" – Mrs. Pinero

Fan Deck:

"Gabe kind of goes about his own business but is never disrespectful to anyone."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Mrs. Hanson. She cares about how each individual student is doing and does her best to make sure that they have everything that they need to be a successful student."
