

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 18th:

Grace Eide

Hometown Pride: "I am proud to be part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because it is a small, supportive and helpful community."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Golf and Basketball

Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

"Younger kids look up to us as high school student athletes and we want to set a good example."

Topic Thunder:

"I think it's important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because it can hurt more than just your brain. It can affect your ability for you to play or practice to your highest potential!"

Scouting Report:

"I have known Grace from the time she was born. She has a fantastic sense of humor. Just seeing her makes me smile. She has a kind and considerate heart." – Mr. Velie

"Grace Eide is such a pleasure to have in class. She works diligently in class and I often see her in the hall focusing just as hard. Grace is a quiet and driven student in and out of the classroom and such a great role model to younger students." – Mrs. Beasley

"Grace has always done a nice job balancing her school and sport commitments. She is an excellent student and fun to have in class!" – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

"Grace is always smiling and never has a mean thing to say."

"Grace always stays upbeat and energetic."

"Grace is involved and kind."

"Grace...who doesn't love Grace?"

"Grace is always determined to do things."

"Grace is very nice."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Scott Vold, he has taught me how to be a dedicated athlete and to never give up no matter how bad things are going. He has learned how to put up with 5 girls that don't hold back, I don't know much but I think that deserves an award."
