

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of February 10th:

Grace Lawrence

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of this community because everybody is willing to help each other in times of need. Everybody had each other's backs."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Clubs: Above and Beyond, AV Club, NHS, and TADD

Thunder Role:

"Younger students look up to the older ones all the time to see how they should be behaving and what they should be doing. If you're doing good things, the younger generations will follow."

Topic Thunder:

"Drugs and alcohol will ruin so many things that these students enjoy. Especially sports. It's important to stay away from them so that their lives do not get negatively affected."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Grace is a very impressive young person. She is multi-talented and an honest, passionate and strong student." – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Grace is a good person, student, and friend. She is more caring and patient than anyone I know."

"Grace cares about people, their well-being and making them comfortable."

"Grace is kind to everyone and always tries to make a positive impact."

"Grace is so dependable and always gets things done."

"Grace is a nice person."

"Grace is outspoken and sweet. I've known her my whole life and she is one of my best friends."

Hometown Hero:

"Kori Riesenweber is my hometown hero. She has done so much for this school by stepping up to the plate and teaching choir a couple days a week. She is a very talented musician and never fails to brighten people's days. She is an incredible woman and deserves to be recognized."
