

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of January 7th:

Greta Nelson

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of our community because everyone knows each other and we always have each other's backs. Osseo-Fairchild is a great community and I love being part of it. We also have many things in our school and community to be proud of."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Cross Country and Basketball Clubs: Above and Beyond, TADD

Thunder Role:

"I think that students who are in athletics and or clubs should be good role models because younger kids are always looking up to us. They come to sporting events and they hope to be like the players and club members one day. It is important to be the best that we can be so that the younger kids will be good role models like us."

Topic Thunder:

"I believe that it is very important for students to stay away from drugs and alcohol because they affect the brain and performance in a negative way. Studies show that underage drinking can severely affect the brain and certain nerves will no longer work the same. This is a big deal for students because their performance in school and athletics could be altered. Also, there are so many better things to do!"

Scouting Report:

"Greta is such a fun student to teach. She is curious, kind, and a hard worker. She always gives her best to everything she sets out to do." – Mrs. Karrer

"Greta is such a kind hearted person. She always tries her best and never complains." – Mrs. Zawacki

"Greta is a joy to have in class. She always works toward success and brings a smile to the classroom. Thank you!" – Mr. Bergeron

"Greta is a positive role model for Osseo-Fairchild. She pushes herself to excel in the classroom and knows how to keep herself motivated." – Mrs. Ottestad

Fan Deck:

"Greta is always positive and works hard to do her best."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero John Haugen. I chose him because he is active in our community. He is a volunteer fire-fighter, and he has been since he was a teenager. John also knows almost everyone, and he would be the first to help anyone with anything they need. He is very respected in Osseo-Fairchild and he deserves it."
