

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of February 11th:

Hailey Abram

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of our community because it is full of nice and caring people. Osseo is a small town where everyone knows everyone and they are willing to help each other out no matter what. This is a great community to be a part of and the people here are very kind and loving."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Volleyball and Basketball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Spanish Club and High Quiz Bowl

Thunder Role:

"All students need to be good role models but especially athletes because the younger kids who are in the same activities will look up to them no matter what. Athletes and club members need to be good role models because there is always someone who looks up to you."

Topic Thunder:

"Students need to stay away from drugs and alcohol because they can be very addictive and if they start doing these they might not be able to stop. Drugs and alcohol are very bad for your health and can possibly ruin your life."

Scouting Report:

"Hailey shows a great desire to learn, and try, any challenge she is given. She has a strong ability to see beyond what is expected, and looks ahead to how things come together. She is routinely polite and respectful, and always has a smile to share." – Mr. Davis

Fan Deck:

"Hailey knows what is right and what is wrong."

"Hailey respects all of her fellow classmates and students."

"Hailey is hard working, kind and funny."

"Hailey gets stuff done when it needs to be done."

"Hailey has a positive attitude and chooses to be a good person."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is my mother Michelle Abram because she is a strong independent woman. She started her own business as a baker and does multiple donations around the community. She is an entrepreneur who is pursuing her dream job while raising four children."
