

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of May 28th:

Hailey Ness

Hometown Pride: "I like being part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because no matter what happens, we help each other out and stick together."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Cross Country and Track

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FFA, FBLA and TADD

Thunder Role:

"It is important for student athletes to be good role models. You never know who is watching you. It could be a little kid who wants to grow up and be like you. You never really know who you are truly inspiring."

Topic Thunder:

"It is very important for students and athletes to stay away from drugs and alcohol because you could get kicked off or suspended from your sport and get a bad reputation in the community."

Scouting Report:

"Hailey has worked very hard this year in World Cultures ." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck:

"Hailey is very involved."

Hometown Hero:

"I chose Maggie Luallen to be my hometown hero, because she does nothing but good in this community and she is probably the most selfless person I know. She will go out of her way to help, rather it be at church or just in the community. She is like a second grandma to me, and I am so glad to have her be a part in this community. "