

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of March 18th:

Hannah Walske

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of our community because being a small town, everyone knows everyone. The community is very supportive of athletes and students."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: None

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA, NHS

Thunder Role:

"I feel that it is important for student athlete / club members to be good role models because younger kids in our school are constantly watching. They look up to high school kids and will do as they do, so you want to set a good example."

Topic Thunder:

"I feel that it is important for students to stay away from drugs and alcohol because of the negative effect that it has on your body. These things will put you and your friends at risk every time you choose to use them."

Scouting Report:

"Hannah is such a friendly person with an outgoing personality. She is a hard worker and a great role model to the younger students." – Mrs. Zawacki

"Hannah is a strong, responsible and very likable student. She easily spreads joy with just the smile on her face." – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck:

"Hannah is hard working and never gives up."

"Hannah is so fun and is a good friend."

"Hannah is awesome."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Carol Dodge. She is such a kind woman who is always involved with various things around the community. She would drop anything to help someone in need!"
