

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 17th:

Hazel Frieberg

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a member of this community because the people in it are so kind. All the small business owners are what make the community what it is. You can tell they really love what they do and that makes such a difference. There is always someone willing to help out which makes this community such a welcoming place."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, Band, Jazz Band

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because it sets the standard for the generation of students. We can show them how to make good choices and be good people."

Topic Thunder:

"I stay away from drugs and alcohol because it's important to me that my body and mind are functioning at their best."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"I appreciate Hazel's increased confidence and willingness to become involved in class activities and discussions." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Hazel is the most genuine person and is always willing to help out!"

"Hazel is very kind and has loads of personality."

"Hazel is one of the funniest people I know and kind to everyone she meets."

"Hazel is a person who can brighten up anyone's day and she always likes to make sure people are involved."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Erik Metzler. He is the coolest cat in town and he can always put a smile on my face. He is always looking out for me and not to mention the rest of his family is great too."
