

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 30th:

Heath Johnson

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the OF community because we stand united in the challenges that face us."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Speech Team
Outside of School: 4H and Youth Group

Thunder Role:

"I think it is important to be a good role model because young people look up to us and if we don't act in a mature manner then they won't and that would cause the next generation to be worse and so on."

Topic Thunder:

"As the science has said drugs and alcohol are bad for your health and abusing these substances could cause death. They also could affect the people around the person who is using them."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Heath Johnson is the bee's knees. Between his political knowledge, infectious sense of humor, and great work ethic, there's nothing he can't do!" - Mrs. Lane Neddermeyer

"Heath makes me smile each day. He is smart, funny, and an overall great person." – Mrs. Velasquez

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Heath Johnson helps me in class, and lightens mood."

"Heath Johnson is always trying to make others laugh."

"Heath Johnson won't make dumb decision."

"Heath is a hard worker, kind, doesn't do drugs, alcohol or anything and is on high honors."

"Heath Johnson is very active in the community and he doesn't judge anyone for what they've been through/what they're going through. Heath never discriminates and he's always there whenever you need him."

"Heath is super smart and has many different passions. He has a contagious laugh and loves to make everyone else laugh."

"Heath Johnson is this funny caring person and doesn't let anyone stand in his way. He can always make you laugh and never lets you down and always helps you when you need it."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Jennifer Weaver. She is a kind person who cares about everyone around her. She has a way of making everyone she comes in contact with happier and better people. She is an amazing person and that is why I nominated her as my hometown hero."
