

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of May 1st:

Isaac Iverson

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the OF community because of the support of everyone. Our town is so small that everyone feels connected to each other. The members of our community are always there to give feedback and help no matter what the circumstance is. That's why I am proud to be a part of the OF community."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Football

Clubs: Above and Beyond, NHS

Outside of School: Ruby's Pantry

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because we as students represent Osseo-Fairchild. It is also important because of the younger kids who are looking up to you."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs as an athlete and club member because it can affect your performance in your activities."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Isaac is a very hard worker and puts forth the effort to understand the material being discussed. Best of luck in the future!" - Mrs. Steinke

"I have always appreciated the way Isaac just goes about his business in the classroom and the maturity he demonstrates." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Isaac has a very caring personality and works hard in school!"

"Isaac is such an amazing person because he always makes sure everyone feels involved and puts others before himself. No matter who you are he will converse with you and he is completely genuine."

"Isaac is funny. No matter how bad of day you are having as soon as he says something it almost instantly makes you laugh."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Lola Iverson. Lola is always there when you need a helping hand. Her energy will make anyone die of laughter. No matter if it's a good day or bad, Lola is always waiting at home to cheer you up."
