

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of January 29th:

Izzy Abram

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the OF community because everyone is very active and involved. Small businesses within the community always donate their food towards events that happen. Everyone in the community are always willing to help each other. Within the school I can always count on my teachers and other classmates if I need something. I think our community is very involved and giving towards each other and that's why I am proud to be a part of the OF community."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Dance Team

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Student Council, FBLA, Hope Squad

Outside of School: I help patty cakes with the farmer's market throughout the summer.

Thunder Role:

"I think it is extremely important to be a good role model. Many younger kids tend to look up to others, like they do with their parents. If people are put into these groups that signify that they are good kids, younger people will look up to them. If these people are acting bad in any way, those younger kids will learn and pick up on those habits."

Topic Thunder:

"Like I said before, kids look up to people in above and beyond. If they see them doing bad things, like drinking or smoking, they will think that is what they are meant to do. Also, as we have learned in many classes before, drinking and smoking can have terrible side effects on your body. If you are consuming drugs while playing a sport, you aren't going to be able to perform at 100%."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"I really appreciate Izzy's enthusiasm and efforts this school year. She has been a great student and fun to have in class." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Izzy tries her hardest and always gets her work done and helps others whenever they need it."

"Izzy is a kind and caring person, she seems to care about others and want to help them to an extent. I think Izzy for the most part is an honest person who has earned their place on this list as a result."

"Izzy Abram is also very reliable. If you need something, she has your back. She's so supportive and one of the best people I know."

"I know that everyone can count on Izzy. She is a part of the Hope Squad, but she is in dance as well."

"Izzy Abram is involved in many different things. She is also kind and is a good teammate when it comes to stunts and relying on each other."

"She is very hardworking and she perseveres. She is dependable and in tune with what others are feeling. She is helpful and understanding."

"She is always helping others and is a responsible person."

Hometown Hero:

"My home town hero is Michelle Abram. Not only is she my mother, but also the owner of the baker Patty cakes. She has taught me many lessons throughout my life and she is an amazing role model. She especially has taught me about giving back to others. Whenever there is a school dance or event, she tries to contribute something by making sweets for it. She always has concern for everyone in the community and hopes the best for everyone. Whenever there is a problem within the town, she always tries to see what she can contribute to the situation. This is why I choose her as my home town hero."
