Izzy Rahl

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the OF community because of all of the amazing community members who help out the town and the school so much, it is very inspiring. They go out of their way to help the students or organizations in the school to help everyone be proud of being a part of the Osseo school district and the community."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model so that younger students can look up to you and for them to have someone responsible to look up. You want to be a good role model to influence students to go down the right path and make responsible choices."

Topic Thunder:

"Being in a sport or club is a privilege, and by using drugs, alcohol or tobacco you would get kicked out of that club or sport and most likely suspended from school as well. Plus, using drugs, alcohol, or tobacco can hinder your abilities to perform well in sports or clubs."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Izzy is consistently dependable and puts a lot of effort into doing high-quality work. She's the kind of person who makes any team or club a better organization just by being involved." – Mr. Boll

"Izzy is one of the most conscientious students I have ever worked with at O-F. She consistently works to her potential, asks questions for clarification, and produces stellar work. Izzy always has her nose in a book if she's not working on schoolwork -- that's a plus in my book any day! We are blessed to have Izzy as a role model in our school." – Mrs. Beasley

Hometown Hero:

"Zanetree (Zane) Gonzalez because he is one of the people that I look up to the most. He cares about everyone that he works with and always asks how their day is going. He makes the workplace a fun place to be and is always looking at the positive side of things. He always offers to help when he notices someone is struggling and will take time to help them or explain something that they don't understand. He cares about not only people, but the environment as well, and strives to help both."
