

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 16th:

Jack Steinke

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the OF community because of how everybody helps each other out no matter what and how people contribute a lot without getting anything out of it. People in the OF community are very selfless and I feel very welcomed and appreciated in the community. I am very proud to be a part of the OF community. It is an awesome community."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Basketball and Track

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FBLA, NHS and Hope Squad

Outside of School: Sons of the American Legion and Volunteer with OELC

Thunder Role:

"I think it is important to be a good role model because you are affecting how other people see you and also see the bigger picture such as what you are representing. More than that it can also change how they act when they are looking up at somebody. Lastly, you want people to view you or your group in a positive way and make them feel good about other people, potentially young people, looking up at them."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because it can severely affect your health and reputation. It can also damage other people around you because you use them. Other people could feel pressured and or just want to use them to be cool if others do and it is important to stay away from them because they are addictive and damaging to people."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Jack is always pushing himself to be the best version of himself that he can be, and it's incredibly admirable. He works extremely hard, and he's genuinely happy to see others succeed. Jack is awesome!" – Mrs. Lane Neddermeyer

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

Hometown Hero:

"Jack Popple is my hometown hero because he has helped me a lot throughout the years with sports and overall preparing me better for sports. He puts in a lot of his own time to help me out and shows up for every work out to give advice and keep helping me be the best I can be. He knows what goals I want to meet and need to meet and he does everything to help me achieve them, and he has made me a better athlete and person and I really appreciate what he has done the past few years. On top of all of this, he does it for everybody and not just me. He takes everybody seriously and tries to help everybody reach their own goals. He is a great role model and makes other around him better."
