

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 9th:

Jaxon James

Hometown Pride:

“Recently, I have seen what we can all do to help each other. It shows the strength and resilience in our community when we have needed it most. Being a part of it is even better when I not only get to see the impact but experience it.”

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Golf

Clubs: Above and Beyond, Culture Club, Student Council, Hope Squad

Outside of School: Trap, SOL and Lions Club

Thunder Role:

“It is very important to be a good role model for not just students in the school but also in the community because the society we live in needs good models and leaders.”

Topic Thunder:

“[Drugs and alcohol] impair your ability and not only will you focus and perform in the chosen sport differently, but they also go against our school’s code for student athletes, along with any other student.”

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

“Jaxon has a knack for making people laugh and is always quick to lend an ear if it's needed. He's always willing to lend a hand and to give everything his all, which is something all of us should strive to do.— Mrs. Schultz

“I was quickly reminded of how much I enjoyed having Jaxon in class with American Civics this trimester. He continues to be one of the most knowledgeable students that I have had while also being very thoughtful, mature and willing to participate in class activities. Jaxon is a great role model for younger students!.” —Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

“Jaxon is always kind to everyone and is very involved in school and any club/sport he's involved in.”

“Jaxon is a leader in the school.”

“Jaxon James is my second choice because he is a funny person overall. There is always something that he can joke around about to get your mood back up.”

“If you know him, he's quite literally the best male student in the school. If there's anyone I could trust with my life, it's Jaxon. He's the most respectful and humble guy in Osseo-Fairchild High School.”

“Jaxon James is a great person to lean on when you need it. He is the best person to talk to about your feelings and is honest with you. He is my own personal therapist.”

“Jaxon James is the next choice because he is always willing to help and take on extra projects to help out our class.”

“Jaxon James is very kind and participates in everything that happens in the classroom.”

Hometown Hero:

“Mrs. V is my hometown hero because through my time in the high school she had always been a rock that I know will be there no matter what. She puts her students first and always wants what is best for us. She has opened the world to me and many others that will inspire for many years to come.”
