

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of January 22nd:

Jillian Scheffer

Hometown Pride:

"I'm proud to be a part of the O-F community because there are lots of close relationships here and everyone is willing to help each other when help is needed."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Volleyball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FFA, and NHS

Thunder Role:

"I believe that it's important to be a good role model because many people look up to you and like to follow in your footsteps."

Topic Thunder:

"As an athlete, I believe that drugs and alcohol can negatively affect your playing skill, reaction time, and mood. If you get caught doing any of those things, then you can have serious consequences and will not be able to play."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Jillian is a joy. She has a friendly disposition and really is a breath of fresh air. She has positive relationships and works hard pursuing her interests. There is no doubt in my mind that she will have an amazing contribution to the world around her." – Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Jillian is a very sweet person. She's always there for everyone and gives really good hugs. She also I very great role model that I look up to."

"Jillian is active in sports and many clubs. She is kind and helpful to many people. She always brings a smile to people's faces and cares about a lot of people in the community."

"Jillian is one of the funniest people I know. There isn't a time where she's making everyone laugh. Her personality is always welcoming and loving. It truly shows how she's able to help anyone without any judgement whatsoever."

"Jillian always does her best and is there for you when you need her."

"Jillian is always there for me no matter what. She tries her best and is an amazing trumpet and volleyball player."

Hometown Hero:

"My dad, Aaron Scheffer, is my hometown hero because he is always so so supportive in not only sports but in everyday life. He always knows what to say when I'm upset or when I get stuck between a rock and a hard place. He works so so hard for our family and is always willing to help the community and anyone who needs assistance."
