

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of April 18th:

John Landrum

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of The OF community because it's a friendly environment and has a great education experience. Also all the community members are super supportive and work to help the children in their community."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Cross Country, Basketball and Track

Thunder Role:

"I believe that being a good role model is important because then lots of people look up to you. Also role models are the kids/adults who make the changes and help anyone who needs it."

Topic Thunder:

"I believe drugs and alcohol and tobacco are bad because they ruin your chances of many things. It makes it hard to do sports and clubs because it slows and damages brain functions. It ruins your chances to do sports and make it hard to keep any relationships."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"John is always so friendly and easy to talk to. He is always on task and giving his best effort." – Mrs. Nelson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"John is always super sweet and doesn't have a mean bone in his body."

"John is super supportive of those around him."

Hometown Hero:

"My home town hero is Tim Popple because he is a supportive coach on the court and off the court. He is encouraging athletes and other people. He works to help students with their work and stay out of trouble."
