

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of January 30th:

Jorja Swett

Hometown Pride:

“The OF community does a lot for the people living there. They do fundraisers to help out businesses like the Chicken Feed for the Fire Department and Music in the Park for businesses that attend. They do things to recognize the people who work to make it nice place to live.”

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Dance and Basketball

Clubs: Above and Beyond

Thunder Role:

“I think it's important to be a good role model for other people, especially younger kids, because they can look up to me. If someone doesn't have the best behavior, then they could learn from me.”

Topic Thunder:

“I think it's important to stay away from those things because it could mess up your brain especially now when you're younger because your brain is still developing. And if you use those things and something happens to you it could mess up your future with that sport or club.”

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

“Jorja has a wonderful attitude of support when it comes to her peers, and she is always doing her best to be kind to others. In addition, she is a very hard worker and gets her work done well, while also helping classmates who may be struggling.” - Ms. Shay

“I have had so much fun having Jorja as part of the basketball program. I am proud of her for taking calculated risks and working hard.” –Mrs. Simpson

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

“Jorja Swett tries hard and is friendly to everyone.”

“Jorja Swett always gets her work done and is a cool friend.”

“Jorja Swett works hard and likes to do the right things and follow the rules.”

“She's hardworking and helpful if you need something.”

“Jorja Swett will always help anyone in need. She is a genius.”

Hometown Hero:

“My hometown here is my dad, Al Swett. He's my hometown hero because he works hard to keep the community safe. He's a firefighter for Osseo and risks himself every time he goes on a call. He likes to go and support football and basketball games. He's always cheering them on and boosting their spirit up so they keep going.”
