

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 29th:

Josh Porter

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of our community because we are a small community that forms close ties with one another and help each other in any way we can."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Cross Country, Track, Basketball (Manager)

Clubs: Above and Beyond NHS, Archery, AV Club, Spanish Club, Science Olympiad, Musical, Forensics, High Quiz Bowl

Thunder Role:

"It is important to be a good role model because there is always someone who looks up to you. Like the phrase, 'monkey see, monkey do' people who look up to you will act like you. This is because they try and be like their role models."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important for students to stay away from drugs and alcohol for many reasons. Some big reasons are that it can stunt growth, harm the lungs, and get you suspended from sports and clubs."

Scouting Report:

"When talking about Josh Porter, lots of adjectives come to my mind; responsible, hardworking student, kind, respectful, considerate and honest. It has been a pleasure to work with Josh in class and as the president of the Spanish Club." – Mrs. Pinero

"Josh is the definition of 'getting the most out of high school' through his tremendous involvement and hard work." – Mr. Stoik

"Josh can perform magic as he can stretch 12 hours into 24 hours. He is actively involved in sports and clubs while maintaining high grades. Most students would give up, but he keeps going and smiles at the same time!" – Mrs. Ottestad

Fan Deck:

"Josh is more behind the scenes, but has a passion for clubs and his running."

"Josh is a great role model to younger students and is respectful and determined."

"Josh always does his best."

"Josh is a good leader, speaker, nice to all, and a great all around role model."

"Josh is a determined and hard worker."

"Josh always tries to help others as well as keeping to learning and not interrupting the class."

"Josh works really hard in school and sports and made the school rules video for scouts."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown is Mrs. Amy Vogt. I chose her as my hometown hero because she just started teaching at Osseo-Fairchild and she got straight into it like she has been working here for years. She helps me a lot when I need help in her class and she always works to make me and fellow students better."
