

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of March 18th:

Kaden Moseley

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because it is simple and there isn't a lot of bad things that happen within it."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Football

Clubs: Above and Beyond, FFA

Thunder Role:

"It is important as an athlete and club member to be a good role model because others may look to you to see what is right and wrong."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs because doing these things can ruin or turn your life upside down."

Scouting Report:

"Kaden is a quiet, yet very witty student. I absolutely love him being in the classroom and also on FFA trips. He is such a conscientious person with everything that he does. He loves his animals and is very good at showing and caring for them. His classmates really like being around him." – Mr. Boettcher

"Kaden Moseley truly takes ownership in his learning. Few students are as determined and focused to make corrections and improve their learning! Thanks Kaden." – Mr. Bergeron

Fan Deck:

"Kaden is a good friend and is always smiling. He likes to be involved and works hard."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is my mom. She has cared for both me and my sister. If it wasn't for her I wouldn't be where I am today."
