

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 16th:

Kaiya Quirk

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be a part of the OF community because I am able to express what I find interest in. I can find support from many people who can help me for everything. That includes for school, sports, mental health, or just a friend. There are teachers that are extremely supportive and can help me through anything."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Volleyball

Clubs: Above and Beyond and Hope Squad

Outside of School: Volunteer at Church Activities

Thunder Role:

"I think it's important to be a role model because when good people show their kindness, helpfulness, and their hard work it's always good for others to see that. Being the bigger and better person is always good to show off because this can change the people around you. You will always receive something good back for being an amazing person and role model."

Topic Thunder:

"It is important to stay away from drugs and alcohol because you need to stay healthy to stay involved and do good in physical activities. It's shows that you are committed to something fun and good for yourself."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"Kaiya is a wonderful musician and she has contributed a lot to the success of our high school band. She is reliable, kind, and a team player." – Mr. Boll

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Kaiya is one of the kindest people I've ever met. There isn't a time where she isn't wanting to help in any situation. Her smile and kindness brings out the best in people every day."

"Kaiya Quirk is a good role model and she tries to make people around her happy."

"Kaiya Quirk works hard and never shows that she's annoyed and is always kind to everyone."

"Kaiya is active in sports and in many clubs. She is very caring and kind to everyone she meets. She always is there for people who are in need to be cheered up or helped."

"Kaiya is one of the sweetest people I know. She's very loving and always there for you."

"Kaiya is always willing to help anyone even if she isn't close with them."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Morgan Quirk because she has always been there for me at my lowest. She knows exactly what to say to make me feel better no matter what it is. She's an amazing sister and has a bright future ahead of her. She works hard in everything she does. She's one of the smartest people I know. I look up to her in everything and I hope to be like her in the future."
