

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 8th:

Kari Herman

Hometown Pride: "I am proud to be part of the Osseo-Fairchild community because our communities provide many opportunities for individuals of all ages to enjoy recreation, music, athletic events and good food. There are many recreation activities for people to experience in our communities such as riding ATV or running on trails between Osseo and Fairchild, listening to live music at Central Park, swimming at Stoddard park, golfing at Osseo Golf Course, watching baseball games at Osseo Merchants Field, or eating at the famous Norske Nook restaurant. The people of Osseo and Fairchild invest their time and care in supporting the youth within the communities and keeping our communities safe and beautiful."

Bleacher Report:

Sports: Cross Country, Basketball and Track

Clubs: Above and Beyond, TADD, Band and NHS

Thunder Role:

"A good role model does and says what is right even if it isn't popular. Role models show they care for others and are able to help and support them in successes and challenges. Likewise, a good role model may inspire a young student athlete to set her heart on being like her role model."

Topic Thunder:

"Drugs and alcohol are terrible for minds and bodies. Athletes and club members who take drugs or alcohol are at risk of letting their team members or club members down."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown heroes are Lynne and Gary Anderson. They volunteer and give much of their time to the Osseo community. Lynne teaches Sunday school at the United Church of Christ in Osseo and for the past 20 years has been the Miss Osseo Coordinator. Gary is an active member of the Osseo Fire Department and can be found supporting sports teams throughout Osseo. He also helps Lynne with Miss Osseo events. They teach volunteerism and responsibility to the new court members each year through the Miss Osseo program by having each member volunteer at Ruby's Pantry, the nursing home, Harvest Suppers and kids' events. Lynne and Gary are very special to the town, and me."
