

The Above and Beyond 'Thunder Clap'
Recognition for the Week of October 4th:

Keyton Boettcher

Hometown Pride:

"I am proud to be part of the OF community because everyone helps and supports each other. Seeing everyone around the community come together and support one another makes me proud to be a part."

Bleacher Report (activities):

Sports: Football, Basketball and Baseball

Clubs: Above and Beyond, National Honor Society, FFA

Outside of School: Involved in Church Activities

Thunder Role:

"I think that if other people see you doing the right thing, they are more likely to also do the right thing."

Topic Thunder:

"As an athlete, drug and alcohol can very negatively affect everything you have worked to achieve. All the hours of hard work could be thrown away."

Scouting Report (quotes from teachers):

"I am so proud of what Keyton has been able to accomplish. He is a super leader to his classmates and others in the school. He is always willing to give help when needed or asked. He is constantly on the go with his academics and his athletics. I am honored to be his coach, teacher, and his dad."

"Keyton Boettcher is reliable and always has a positive word about his teachers and classmates. Although he's quiet in class, he isn't afraid to ask questions and to clarify directions which ultimately helps everyone in the class." – Mrs. Beasley

"I know that Keyton's broken leg isn't going to stop him from continuing to be an active leader both in sports and also in the classroom." – Mr. Stoik

Fan Deck (quotes from peers):

"Keyton is very nice and funny, and overall a great guy. He is also a good football player."

"Keyton B is always doing a sport and always helps out in school."

"Keyton Boettcher because he always knows how to make people laugh and is a great friend."

"Keyton Boettcher because he is active in the school."

Hometown Hero:

"My hometown hero is Donnie Kuehn because he not only encourages others to push themselves to be better. He also pushes himself and tries to better himself. He is a great role model and example of a hometown hero."
